Course content

Morning and afternoon sessions will focus on helping you develop your general English language skills through a variety of useful and engaging materials and activities. Every week will include: You can expect to cover the following areas:

- Grammar and vocabulary points selected by your trainer based on your needs and goals. You will practise these throughout the week
- A focus on speaking, with the majority of your classes designed to maximise your speaking time
- Extended fluency activities including discussions, role-plays and presentations. These will give you the opportunity to develop your speaking further and bring together the grammar, vocabulary and skills you have worked on during the week
- Listening and reading activities from a range of sources
- A focus on writing skills, for example formal and informal emails
- Pronunciation. This may be in the form of a dedicated lesson and/or connected to the grammar, vocabulary or skills you are studying
- Practical communication strategies, for example agreeing and disagreeing politely, interrupting, showing sympathy
- A focus on social and intercultural English
- Correction and productive feedback on your speaking and writing

During the course you will also receive:

- Advice on the best ways to study, both in the classroom and outside
- An exploration of modern British culture
- Discussions and activities based on current news and media

For people who book more than 8 weeks, we have a dedicated support system to ensure that your needs are met throughout your time with us and that you continue to see progress in your skills. This extra support includes:

- Extra tutorials to discuss your goals and progress (optional)
- Personalised feedback
- We will communicate regularly with you so that any issues can be dealt with as quickly as possible and your experience is the best and most rewarding it can be.
