Who is it for?

Our English for Banking & Finance course is designed for professionals currently working within the finance and banking industries. Keeping our groups small (maximum 6 students) allows for focused learning and progress in business English skills. The course covers the language, terminology, and communication strategies required in finance roles.

Course content

The English for Banking & Finance course builds your business English skills and professional capabilities so you are fully prepared for a career in the finance industry.

You can expect to cover the following areas:

- Using industry-specific vocabulary and formal grammar
- Listening skills such as comprehending financial news and earnings calls
- Reading skills like analysing annual reports, contracts, and regulatory documents
- Writing skills including professional emails, company reports, and client proposals
- Speaking skills like delivering presentations, negotiating deals, and networking
- Conducting research, financial analysis, and formulating opinions
- Collaborating towards group presentations and reports

A key part of the course is the group project where you work on a business case study and presentation. You will be assessed and given detailed feedback to continue improving your business English proficiency.

Benefits
